BIG BOTHER A $500,000 winner has been declared (£dfie) McGee, left), and Big Brother is over. Finally, As plans are explored for a second installment of the house arrest "reality" show, CBS must keep this lesson in mind: Cast people who are more compelling. "We were looking for people who were intervaled."

"We were looking for people who were interested in the experience more than the prize more); executive producer Douglas Ross says of the first Big Brother. (For more, see "Big Brother, Big Breakun," page 3.) The residents started "forgoring the competition because they didn't want to hurt each other's feelings. That resulted in a lot of nice behavior that isn't always interesting television."

In fact, what went on inside the house wasn't nearly as interesting as what happened outside, where pranksters attempted to disrupt the isolation in CBS's makeshift home. When producers offered $10,000 to anyone who would exit-a ploy to install a new resident—Kaye Mallory parked nearby and announced through a megaphone, "The other hands and the product of the product of

TAPE DELAY SHMAPE DELAY: WE GOT GAME-RUT WE HAD TO WAIT MORE THAN 15 HOURS FOR IT Fornet nymnastics kayaking or wrestlingthe most contested sport of this year's Summer Olympics in Sydney Australia was NBC bashing. The network took a lot of heat for its endless, profileheavy, tape-delayed coverage, And, they deserved it! These names vielded the lowest TV ratings for any Olympics since 1968.

excitoment was sucked from the competition We look forward to 2002 when the Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City can be shown live in prime time; but the 2004 summer names in Athens Greece (with a soven-hour time difference from the East Coast) will again require tape delay. Here. TV Guipe offers five ways to improve the coverage. THROW US SOME CRUMBS: Tape delay is fine for events that happened in the Aussie evening (early morning in the United States) but what about ones that occurred during American prime time? NBC still aired them on delay. Marion Jones's first round heat of the 200-meter dash (left) could have been shown live just past B P.M./ET, but NBC held the race for nearly 24 hours and showed it during the next night's broadcast.

Why the fascination with all this bloodletting? "The vamnire is an interesting villain for our times." Craven says, "Dracula is a villain who is, in the end, very much like us. Trevor Goddard (right) has always been a tough guy. The ex-pro boxer plays a tough Navy lieutenant on CBS's JAG and is known for playing surly villains in action flicks like "Mortal Kombat." So. what was he doing facedown on the set of his latest movie. "Hollywood Vampyr," with paramedics rushing to his aid as hundreds of extras watched in shock? Simple. He fainted at the sight of fake blood, "This is pretty embarrassing," he says, "I was to cut this woman's DOWN arm, and fake blood was AND OUT supposed to goze out. But when it. did, I hit the bloody floor. I even swallowed one of my fangs. I'm never going to bear the end of this " No doubt

CHEERS to playing politics, OK, after Titans, anything would have looked good but the first hour of NRC's two hour season premiere of The West Wing (October 4) was gripping even by its own standards. The aftermath of last season's shoot-'em-up cliff-hanger had our hearts thumping (though we did have plenty of time to catch our breath in the more ponderous second hour). Fortunately, rumors of characters being killed off were just that-rumors. No one in this cast is disnensable and we can only hope the show's writers give more airtime to Anna Deavere Smith's no-noncence national security advisor. We still could do without the lanses into mawkishness. but after watching the October 3 presidential debates we fully understand why The West Wind's return was a ratings triumph: This series is pure fantasy, tapping into our deepest "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington" desires. In the age of reality TV.

than two weeks before going on a brief hiatus for retooling, but that was long enough to give Laura Schlessinger's archenemy-the Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation—some new ammo: A GLAAD intern monitoring the series noticed that a Schlessinger audience member was interviewed in two episodes under two different capacities. First, the guest was questioned on September 25 about her experience as a profes-

CHFERS to tampering with a formula, Coca-Cola-no stranger to the dangers of messing with a good thing-took a chance with a new approach, and this time it paid off. Coke's new commercials play off the company's traditional feel-good campaigns with delightful results. In one. a 101-year-old woman attends a family reunion but before anyone has a chance to say "awww." she launches into a tirade about the lack of her favorite beverage. Another snot takes a similar approach when a young military man comes home on leave only to rant. about his Coke-less reception. Makes us wonder what would happen if those digitized nolar bears showed their teeth.

CHEERS to internal debate. Though it might seem a tad cannibalistic for journalists to dissect one another, ABC anchor Peter Jennings and correspondent Sam Donaldson were absolutely justified in reviewing the performance of the presidential debate moderator PBS's Jim Lehrer, as part of their post-debate discussion October 3. Should Lehrer have reined in a filibustering Gore? Should be have pressed Bush for specifics when the Texas governor got (to use his own word) fuzzy? Opinions vary (we say yes to both), but Donaldson and Jennings were right to question the questioner's tactics.

Memorable line: "The feeling is more than mutual sir" (after Burns, having just received a lifesaving blood transfusion, says, "Smithers, I love you"). First appearance: January 21, 1990, "Homer's Odyssey," in which he, for the first (but not the last) time, has to tell Mr. Burns the name of a certain donut-eating employee.

The scoop: Although never officially outed, writers concede that Smithers may not be gay in the same way that Homer may not be stupid. "We refer to him as a Burnsasexual." says executive producer Al Jean. In the second-season episode "Blood Feud." the script had Smithers say, "Just leave me enough to get home to my wife and kids," before giving Burns a transfusion. But the line was cut for time purposes, freeing the writers to hint at Smithers's altemative lifestyle without any messy family history In his debut appearance. Smithers was unintentionally African-American, the result of a communications foul-up between Americanbased producers and series animators in Korea. Deciding it would be a bad idea to have a black subservient character, producers flipped Smithers back to Caucasian the next show.

Groening says: "He was partly inspired by the way Fox executives acted around Barry Diller. The loke used to be, 'Who's Burns based on? Barry Diller. Who's Smithers based on? Everyone else at Fox."

The scoop: Named after Flanders Street in Portland, On aon. Groening's hometown. "Ned is everything Homer would love to be although he'll never admit it." says executive producer Mike Scully. Ned's annovingly upbeat brand of Christianity and "oakily dokily" speech patterns have made him an easy target for those who have accused the show of being antireligious, But Al Jean says: "We don't mock Ned's faith, We actually think he's a guy with a lot of wonderful qualities." First appearance: January 14, 1990, "Bart the Genius," in which it is revealed that Skinner has an entire file drawer dedicated to the assorted misdeeds, provocations and academic failures of one Bart J. Simpson.

The scoop: Greening named him after world renowned spechologist BE Schinen, noted for his work with rats in cages. Skinner has shown a softer side over the years (occasionally even trading his coat and the for-gaspisweete). "What I like about him:" Mike Scrully says, "is that as much as he's a stuffed shirt, he really does care shout the school and the kids:

The scoop: Bart's duping of Moe is based on the tapes of actual prank calls, widely circulated in the early '80s, to Jersey City, New Jersey, bartender Louis "Red" Deutsch, who constantly fell for fake requests for customers named Al Coholic and Ben Dover, He also unfailingly flew into profanity-laced fits of rage when he realized he'd been had. According to Mike Scully, "Moe is the kind of auv who would punch someone in the face for you, if you just asked him. He doesn't need a reason. He's just kind of mad at the world." #### ITCHY & SCRATCHY

The ultraviolent carbon mouse and cat are beloved by Bart, Isa and all the impressionable children of Springflield. Itchy has obliterated Scratchy in every episode, including "Terror of Tiny Toon," billed as "the violentest, disembowellingest, vomit-inducingest flich & Scratchy Hallowen special ever," Scratchy voiced by Harry Shearer, Itchy by Dan Castellaneta.)

First appearance: November 20, 1988,
"The Bart Simpson Show" (Tracey Ullman short), in which Scratchiy (the cat) chases litchy (the mouse) with an ax, but ends up with dynamite in his mouth and a sweeted head

The scoop. The way to tell them apart is that "Scratchy" contains the letters c=r.4. A saltre of increasingly violent Sautrody-morning carbons taken, as Shearer says, "about two cjant, grotesque, macabre steps further." First appearance: January 10, 1988, "Grampa and the Kids" (Tracey Ullman short), in which he tells Bart and Lisa boring stories about the "good old days." When they ask for something scarier, he fakes his own death

The scoop: Often the focus of pointed lokes about old people. Al Jean says, "Some of that is because we're trying to illustrate how society mistreats the elderly, and some of it is because people over 55 never watch our show."

Groening says: "I just wanted to have a in errecope.

First appearance: December I7, 1959, S'impsons Rosating on an Open Fire, in which she and Patty greet Homer with scowls as he walks in the door, pointing out that he haarti bought his family a Christmas tree.

The Scoop: Bouvier is the maiden name of Jacqueline Kenney's Onessis.

Although Julie Kavner can't lell them apart and does their voices exactly the same, there are ways to distinguish between Selma and Patty. Selma has a part in her hair, round earrings and a blue dress. Patty has no part, triangular earrings and a pink dress. David Silverman says the animation designs for Patty and

First appearance: December 17. ns no politicos encomicios especial Onen Fire" in which he finishes last in yet another race, is abandoned by his owner, jumps into Homer's arms, is adonted and becomes Homer's Christmas gift to the family. The scoop: Al Jean takes credit and/or blame for the mouthful of a name. "We needed a name that would inspire Homer to bet on him an omen, a Christmas name since he was betting on Christmas Eve. But. at that point nobody was thinking long-term. We weren't considering what might happen in 10 years, when w'e got to use this name." Welker, one of the few people Groening unabashedily calls "a genius," is a legend for his animal voices (everything from Abu, the monkey, in Disney's "Naddin," to the baby monsters in

The guidelines for writing Santa, according to writer John

Suddenly, lowering my high cholesterol became even more important than football.

-Head Coach Dan Reeves

Only six weeks before one of the most important games of my life. I felt a strange pain in my chest — and wanted to ignore it. I mentioned it to my doctor, who encouraged me to get it checked out the next day. What they found was unlike any opponent I had ever faced: three of my arteries were more than 90 percent blocked. I was suffering from heart disease and had to undergo emergency bypass surgery. Fortunately, I had a full recovery, and was even able to coach my team in the biggest game of the season four weeks later. Looking back, I wish I had done some of the things I am doing now to take better care of myself. Some of those things include a better diet, regular exercise, and taking ZOCOR to help significantly lower my total cholesterol. When diet and exercise are not enough. ZOCOR can help people with high cholesterol and heart disease live a longer life by reducing the risk of a heart attack. Important considerations: ZOCOR is a prescription medication, so you should ask your doctor or healthcare professional if ZOCOR is right for you. ZOCOR Isn't for everyone, including women who are pregnant or nursing or who may become pregnant, people who are allergic to any of its ingredients, or anyone with liver disease. Unexplained muscle pain or weakness could be a sign of a rare but serious side effect and should be reported to your doctor right away. Your doctor may do simple blood tests before and during treatment with ZOCOR to check for liver problems. Be sure your doctor knows about medications you may be taking in order to avoid any serious drug interactions. With so much to look forward to, don't let high cholesterol and heart disease take you out of the game. Talk to your doctor to see if ZOCOR is right for you.

Some people should not take ZOCOR, Oiscuss this with your doctor.

ZOCOR should not be used by patients who are allernic to any of its ingredients. In addition to the active ingredient simvastatin, each tablet contains the following inactive ingredients: cellulose, lactose, magnesium stearate, iron oxides, talc, titanium dioxide, and starch, Butvlated hydroxyanisole is added as a preservative.

Patients with liver problems: 7000R should not be used by patients with active liver disease or repeated blood test results indicating possible liver problems. (See WARNINGS.)

Women who are or may become pregnant: Pregnant women should not take ZOCOR because it may harm the fetus. Women of childbearing age should not take ZOCOR unless it is highly unlikely that they will become pregnant. If a woman does become pregnant while on ZOCOR, she should stop taking the drug and talk to her doctor at once.

Women who are breast-feeding should not take ZOCOR. WARNINGS

Muscle: Tell your doctor right away if you experience any unexplained muscle pain, tenderness, or weakness at any time during treatment with ZOCOR so your doctor can decide if ZOCOR should be stopped. Some patients may have muscle pain or weakness while taking ZOCOR. Rarely, this can include muscle breakdown resulting in kidney damage. The risk of muscle breakdown is greater in patients taking certain other drugs along with ZOCOR. such as the lipid-fowering drug Louid (gemtibrozil), and other fibrates: ligid-lowering doses of piacin (nicotinic acid); Sandimmune (cyclosporine); itraconazole, ketoconazole, and other azole antitungal drugs; the antihintics erythromycin and clarithromycin: HfV protease inhibitors; and the antidenressant netazodone. Interruption of therapy with ZOCOR* (simvastatin) should be considered if you are going to take an azofe antifungal medication, such as ifraconazole, or macrofide antihiotics, such as erythromycin, Patients using ZOCOR along with any of these other drugs should be carefully monitored by their obysician. The risk of muscle breakdown is greater in patients with kidney problems or diabetes.

Because there are risks in combinion therapy with ZOCOR with the drugs listed above, your doctor should carefully weigh the potential benetits and risks. He or she should also carefully monitor patients tor any muscle pain. tenderness, or weakness, particularly during the initial months of therapy and if the dose of either drug is increased. Your doctor also may monitor the level of certain muscle enzymes in your hady, but there is no assurance that such monitoring will prevent the occurrence of severe muscle disease

It you have conditions that can increase your risk of muscle breakdown, which in turn can cause kidney damage, your doctor should temporarily withhold or stop ZOCOR, Also, since there are no known adverse consequences of briefly stanning therapy with ZOCOR, treatment should be stopped a few days before elective major surnery and when any major acute medical or surgical condition occurs. Discuss this with your doctor, who can explain these conditions to you.

Liver: About 1% of natients who took ZOCOR in cfinical trials developed efevated fevels of some liver enzymes. Patients who had these increases usually had no symptoms. Flevated liver enzymes usually returned to normal levels when therapy with ZOCOR was stopped.

In the ZOCOR Survival Study, the number of patients with more than one liver enzyme level elevation to greater than 3 times the normal upper limit was no different between the ZOCOR and placebo groups. Only 8 patients on ZOCOR and 5 on placebo discontinued therapy due to elevated liver enzyme levels. Patients were started on 20 mg of ZOCOR, and one third had their dose raised to 40 mg.

Your doctor should perform routine blood tests to check these enzymes before you start treatment with ZOCOR and periodically thereafter (for example, semiannually) tor your first year of treatment or until 1 year after your last elevation in dose. Patients titrated to the 80-mn dose should receive an additional test at 3 months. If your enzyme levels increase, your doctor should order more frequent tests. If your liver enzyme levels remain unusually high, your doctor should discontinue your medication.

Tell your doctor about any liver disease you may have had in the past and about how much alcohol you consume, ZOCOR should be used with caution in patients who consume large amounts of alcohol.

PRECAUTIONS

Before starting treatment with ZOCOR, try to lower your cholesterol by other methods such as diet, exercise, and weight loss. Ask your doctor about how best to do this, Any other medical problems that can cause high cholesterol

Drug Interactions: Because of possible serious drug interactions, it is important to tell your doctor what other drugs you are taking, including those obtained without a prescription.

ZOCOR® (simvastatin) can interact with cyclosporine (Sandimmune), itraconazole, ketoconazole, Lopid, niacin, erythromycin, clarithromycin, HIV protease inhibitors, and nefazodone. (See WARNINGS, Muscle.)

Some patients taking lipid-lowering agents similar to ZOCOR and coumarin anticoagulants (a type of blood thinner) have experienced bleeding and/or increased blood clotting time. Patients taking these medicines should have their blood tested before starting therapy with ZOCOR and should continue to be monitored.

big brother,

KAREN FOWLER SAYS
THE CBS REALITY
SERIES GAVE HER
THE COURAGE TO ENDHER TROUBLED

BY ILEANE RUDOLPH

When Karen Fowler saw the "Big Brother Wants You" ad in her Columbus, Indiana, paper, she got goose bumps. 'I thought it would be so cool," she says. She didn't know she was about to change her life dramatically. Or that, on national television, she'd rip the mask off her "loveless" 22 year-old marriage.

Happily for the producers of Big Brother, Karen's confessions—she called her husband "cold and controlling" and said she had an extramarital affairwere dynamite in a house that gave off few sparks. Viewers wondered: "Would she have a breakdown?" Would she reconcile with her husband?" Six weeks later, she was off the show. A weeping Fowler, 44, begged to be banished from the house because she missed her four children. Whether in books or on talk shows or reality shows, keeping things to yourself has become a thing of the repressed past. Fowler doesn't regret her candor. "Everybody in the house was applauding me for having this long-lasting marriage," she says. "I've been honest all my life, and I knew I had to be with them."

Back home in Columbus, she made one last attempt to start over with her husband, Tom, but, despite one last act of lovemaking, it was over, she says. Karen and her eldest daughter, Jill, 20, an aspiring actress, headed to Los Angeles

These days, Karen lives in a rehated Burbank townhouse with her daughters, Jill and Ashley, 15 (her son Jeremy, 19, will join them in December, Nathan, 17, is a student at Indiana University). Trim and energetic, she shows off fan mail and her bise Brother audition tane complete with scenes of her taking a shower and posed discreetly on the toilet. "I didn't have any privacy at home, either," she says, with a laugh.

Her eyes well up only when she discusses her husband. Tom, a 45-year-old accountant, from whom she has just legally separated. Her girls are her staunchest defenders against charges from viewers that she unfairly bashed him. "Nothing you said hurt us." Jill says, taking her mother's hand, "The only thing that bothered me was when vou cried about having left us."

Ashley, though, has one complaint, "The teary-eved person [CBS] showed is not who Mom is. She's very strong and loving." Yet, despite the "skewed" editing, says Jill, "I appreciate what CBS has done for her. It's great to see people waving to her, complimenting her. She never got that from our dad. Mom did everything for us. It's fun for her to be the focus for a change.'

Karen suspects that the Big Brother producers milked her melodramatic potential, asking questions about her children that would make her cry. But she admits, "I set myself up for people to judge me." Fowler's Big Brother housemate, Brittany Petros, who is living with the family until she can find her own place, says the show "jumped on the marriage thing. You got this image of a hackstabbing, bushand-trashing person. but she's really open and giving

That Karen chose to vent on TV is not as peculiar as it seems, suggests Elizabeth Levy, a family therapist in Horsham. Pennsylvania, "If you're that desperate to break away there are no boundaries." Levy says, "When you get no support from your husband, it's not surprising that you would use Big Brother as group therapy and [express] your rage," And there could be benefits, she adds, "The show may finally have enabled her to move into a more empowered position."

But what does the man who took all the knocks have to say? When reached at his Columbus office. Tom Fowler would only say, "I've put all this behind me."

The Fowler women are trying to put their troubles behind them, too, Thriving on every smile, every "I love you, Karen! sent their way by passers by they exude a kind of giddiness. But how long can this euphoria last? Karen may have tried to reinvent herself, 21st-century style, on television, but unlike the wildly popular Survivor cast, she has yet to cash in on her TV stint. She's auditioned for an independent film producer and appeared on Cybill Shepherd's syndicated talk show Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus. "An agent told me that my 15 minutes of fame are down to six," she says with good humor, adding that being "an unfaithful wife" doesn't make her a role model. Fowler has just started work as a receptionist at an audio-video equipment rental company in Burbank.

And when the fans forget her, will the upheaval precipitated by Bia Brother have been worth it? "In the house I realized that I could stand alone," Karen declares. "When I said, 'This is my life, and I've got to do something about it,' I hope it helped other women. I've done something for me for the first time in my life. And my family will benefit from it."

There is no seat hotter on television these days than the one opposite Tim Russert, Just ask Hillary Clinton, Or Al Gore, Or Dick Cheney.

During a September debate between New York Senate candidates Clinton and Rick Lazio Russert showed a clip of Clinton denving her husband's affair with Monica Lewinsky. He asked if she regretted "misleading the American people" and if she would "now apologize for branding people as part of a vast right-wing conspiracy," (She did not, although it was clear that showing the tand during the debate, which aired nationally on MSNBC, came as an unpleasant surprise.)

In July, Russert confronted presidential candidate Al Gore on NBC's Meet the Press, asking Gore if he supports a federal statute that says a pregnant woman on death row will not be executed. (Fumbling for an answer, Gore said he would have to look into the matter.)

And Russert grilled Cheney. also in July, about the Republica vice-presidential candidate's most sensitive personal issue: his heart

Tim Russert has furned Meet the Press headline-candidates choice but problem, Said Russert; "Three heart attacks and a quadruple bypass in 1988. Bypasses usually last 10 to 12 years, Will you need another one soon?" If it was imminent, answered a perturbed Cheney "I wouldn't be here today '

To survive a confrontation with Russert has become a sort of de facto mark of achievement for a politician "Through a sustained question-andanswer [session] with Tim." says Jonathan Alter, a Newsweek columnist and an NBC News contributing correspondent. "people are going to say the candidate is up for the job or he's not."

Russert's rough-hewn persona has turned Meet the Press into the dominant Sunday-morning news show, topping ABC's This Week With Sam Donaldson and Cokie Roberts and CBS's Face the honeful understanding that success Gore on rests in Russert's Irish-Meet the Catholic working-class back-Press ground in Buffalo, New York.

Russert, 50, grew up on the first floor of a two-family house with pictures on the wall of Jesus, the Blessed Virgin and John F. Kennedy. His mother, Elizabeth. 71, stayed home with the kids (Betty, 52, a health technician: Kathy, 45, a computer analyst; and Trish, 40, a homemaker). "We had only one bathroom for six people," Russert says, "And I spent my life trying not to be strangled by nylons, bras and being overcome by hair spray. To this day I cannot tolerate hair spray." (When wife Maureen Orth, a writer for Vanity Fair, uses hair spray, Russert says, "I run out of the house.") His father. Timothy Russert Sr., 76, had two jobs for 37 years: He worked days as a sanitation foreman and nights as a truck driver for the Buffalo News. Says Rusgert "He never whined '

Neither does his son, who has rarely had the time. While at Canisius High School, he delivered papers and worked at St. Michael's Church rectory. He wouldn't get home to do homework till seven at night. During summers off from Jesuit-run John Carroll University in Cleveland he worked on a garbage truck made pizzas and drove a taxi. He also earned a law degree from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law That it was not Harvard or Yale bothered him when he first came to Washington, D.C., but he later realized that his blue-collar experionces were invaluable "His magic is where he comes from and the fact that he never forgets it," says Joe Klein, author of Primary Colors and a political columnist for the New Yorker, "[Tim's] is the voice of the upwardly mobile. working-class kid who was the first one in his family to go to college or law school. That's his great strength.'

What drives him? Russert credits a sense of responsibility instilled by his father. "'You have an opportunity,'" he says his father told him. "You know what is expected of you: don't blow it.'" He also feels that sense of responsibility for his son, Luke, 15. "Sometimes I worry," he says, "because I'm trying to relive through him many of the things I missed growing up because we couldn't afford it. We go to the Super Bowl. We go to baseball games, and we're in the front."

Russert has a crystal-clear understanding of politics because before NBC he spent time in the political arena. working as chief of staff and special counsel to New York senator Daniel Patrick Movnihan from 1977 to 1982. (Continued on page 59)

AND PRESTO, YOU'RE A MORNING PERSON.

For people with type 2 diabetes

Avandia rosiglitazone maleate

Strengthen your body's own ability to control blood sugar.

"I manage my type 2 diabetes through diet, exercise and medication,

"The medication my doctor prescribed is Avandia, Avandia works differently from most other diabetes medications. It strengthens my body's ability to use its own natural insulin more effectively for long-lasting improvement in blood sugar control, I can feel comfortable taking Avandia tablets because they're safe to take as prescribed once or twice a day."

Avandia, along with diet and exercise, helps improve blood sugar control. It may be prescribed alone, with Glucophage (metformin HCl tablets), or with sulfonviureas, such as Amaryle (glimepiride tablets) and Glucotrol XL® (glipizide).

In studies, the most common side effects included cold-like symptoms and headache. A small percentage of people experienced anemia and/or mild to moderate swelling of their legs or ankles. If you experience these or other symptoms, talk to your doctor.

l am stronger

When taking Avandia with a sulfonylurea you may be at risk for low blood sugar. Ask your doctor whether you need to adjust your sulfonvlurea dosage.

While taking Avandia, follow your doctor's guidelines for periodic liver monitoring. If you experience nausea, vomiting, stomach pain, tiredoess, anorexia, dark urine or vellowing of the skin, talk to your doctor immediately. Also, talk to your doctor if you experience shortness of breath or an unusually rapid increase in weight. Tell your doctor if you have a history of congestive heart failure or edema. Please see important nationt information on the following page

If you are a premenopausal woman who is not evulating, you should know that Avandia therapy may result in resumption of evulation, which may increase your chances of becoming pregnant. Therefore, you may need to consider birth control options. Talk to your doctor before taking Avandia If you are nursing, pregnant or thinking about becoming pregnant.

For improved blood sugar control, follow the diet, exercise, weight-loss and medication plan recommended by your doctor and test your blood sugar regularly.

"In the naners, the news, everyday I am..." So says Eminem in his hit song "I Am," and it's no idle hoast: Since last May's release of The Marshall Mathers LP, the controversial rap star has made headlines-EMINEM'S X-TRA FOUL TWIST ON XMAS SONGSand dominated TV screens, stopping the show at this year's MTV Video Music Awards and strutting his stuff on the season premiere of Saturday Night Line. With the release of the video for his disturbing ballad "Stan" due this month, we asked some of the nation's opinion makers to share their views on the real Slim Shady.

DR. C. DELORES TUCKER National chair, the National Political Congress of Black Women

The lyrics of gangsta-porno rapper Eminem, who is heavily promoted by Interscope Records as a white incarnation of the late, unlamented Tupac Shakur. reveal that he has descended even deeper into decadence than most of his contemporary gangsta-porno rappers. He has not just crossed the line of decency, but by his explicit advocacy of incest, sacrilege, rape and sodomy, he has demolished the line and in the process intensifies the urgent need for protection of our children from his cultural assaults. We must now find a way to impose responsible corporate citizenship, as opposed to censorship, in order to protect our children from the souldestroying hate music of

This is not about ridiculing the gay community this is about violence against gays and women. This is not about free speech; if is about violence. The real danger lies in the fact that Eminens audience is easily influenced youth who emulate his dress and mannerisms, his words and his bellefs. The artist himself, his record label, MTV, record retailers to a large extent have totally ignored this under the guise of free speech.

I think he's really good at what he does, and I appreciate the artistry, but I worry that if Hitler or Pol Pot made a good dance record, people would probably buy that as well. The problem is, Where do you draw the line? In terms of rap, it's nothing new. It's almost a given that if you're going to rap, you have to be homophobic and misogynistic, so in that respect it's not particularly clever. I think that gay people are really the last minority that it's cool to hate and ridicule. I'm gay, and that pisses me

Can Titans Save NBC From a Rocky Fall? EXEC'S FUTURE MAY RIDE ON SUCCESS OF WEST WING AND THE AARON SPELLING SOAP Talk to virtually anybody in the businessagents or studio and network executives-and they will say, generally not for attribution, of course, that NBC Entertainment president Garth Ancier has a target on his back. The consensus is the same for his boss. NBC West Coast president Scott Sassa "This season is do-or-die for those guys," says a senior studio executive. "If they don't pull out a hit, at least one of (them) is likely to take a fall."

Read the Robins Report online at www.tvquide.com/ magazine/robles/ or America

Sassa and Ancier have learned to live with the specter of their own cancellations. After word leaked out at July's TV Critics Association press tour that he and Ancier had been lambasted not only by NBC president Bob Wright but also by Jack Welch, chairman of corporate parent General Electric, for missing the Reality-TV boat, Sassa sarcastically thanked "the 20 people who didn't print the rumor that I was being fired." The gallows humor continues among NBC's programming brass. "If you need to find me in November, try reaching me in the unemployment line." Ancier told TV Guide with a laugh. However, if NBC's premiere week is any indication of things to come. Ancier and Sassa may have bought some time. The overrine Aaron Spelling soap debut, followed by the smash two-hour season premiere of Emmy award-winning The West Wing, "[Titans] is a costly, cheesy show and Bob Wright didn't want to put it on the schedule, but Garth drew a line in the sand," says one NBC executive, "[Ancier] really bet the farm on the draw of Yasmine Bleeth's cleavage."

Ancier admits that his corporate masters resisted Titans, "I knew it would be a big hit or a complete miss, but I'm paid to trust my gut. Ancier says. "You can't program a network based on the opinions of 60year-old white guys who live in Manhattan and Connecticut. Associates of Ancier say he was emboldened by his West Wing experience. "Garth and Scott fought to put West Wing on last year, when a lot of people in New York were Still, Sassa and Ancier are not home free. Dateline NRC executive producer Neal Shapiro has been told he may have a fourth night of the magazine on before the end of the year, according to NBC News sources. One new comedy. Tucker, fizzled its first time out. Other new comedies, such as The Michael Richards Show and the ominously titled Cursed, had to be overhauled. And DAG has had its premiere delayed till mid November.

There's been a bit more enthusiasm for NBC's dramas, most notably Ed, but the industry consensus is that overall, NBC has lost its way. The disappointing ratings for the Sydney Olympics only

"It just seems like what has been put on got on because the network had a commitment to a Michael Richards or a [Law & Order executive producerl Dick Wolf, Too much seems deal-driven."

A Starcom new-season report is even more blunt: "Oh, how the mighty have fallen. NBC is like a ship without a captain, or more accurately, the captain doesn't know where he is going."

That industry view has fueled a persistent buzz that several seasoned veterans are being sized up to replace the current team if the fall turns into a bust.

Another prince-inwaiting is deff Sagansky, president and CEO of the fledgling Pax network, in which NBC has a 32 percent stake. Before joining Pax in 1998, Sagansky was president of CBS Entertainment in Murphy Broun era. "It's funny how often you go into INBC headuarters!

Then, as now, Russert was organized and aggressive. "As a package of talent, he had everything," Cuomo says. "But that talent was not being tested."

Russert was willing. In 1984, he moved from politics to TV news, armed with a legacy from Moynihan: "Never take cheap shots, work with the facts and value bipartisanship if you want to achieve something," Russert says the New York senator taught him, Russert joined NBC. assisting Lawrence K. Grossman, then president of news, and soon became the executive in charge of Today. In 1989, he was appointed Washington bureau chief, then began to make frequent appearances on Meet the Press, taking over as host in December 1991. Adding to his visibility are his weekend show on CNBC, which started in 1994, and appearances on the NBC Nightly News, Today and MSNBC.

Like anyone learning a new trade, Russert made early mistakes. "The first few years he had [quite a] temper," says Press stage manager Howard Sacks. "People used to hide behind the camera and not want to be near him." But now, "he's calmed down," Sacks says.

Russert admits being upset early on over technical difficulties with the show, which have since decreased. "I believe [that] in sports, politics and life, people have to be accountable."

With Meet the Press, Russert has created a major power base in the nation's capital. So it is not surprising that some D.C. insiders In 1982, with use the term egotistical to describe his style.

"We call it 'Me the Press,' since it's all about Tim," says one prominent Washington attorney. There are rumblings, too, that Russert competes for stories with reporters in his own bureau.

Russert bristles at the charges. "Part of my role is that my visibility gives me an opportunity to talk to the players. They'li give me at it. Jasse stings on all the time. Talk to the people I work with." NBC correspondent Andrea Mitchell denies the big-footing charge. "Not true," Mitchell says. "He gives stories and ideas to his correspondents."

Cuomo believes that Russert is too restive a soul to remain doing what he's doing forever. Says Cuomo: "He has to move on."

TV-news insiders speculate that Russert will climb the ladder at NBC, perhaps becoming president of news. All Russert will say is that he has a contract through "2004 that stipulates [his moderating] Meet the Press and [continuing] as Washington bureau chief."

But what about politics? Could he return one day as a candidate? Il was asked to run a long time ago for mayor of Buffalo, or [for] a congressional seat from Buffalo or senator from New York," Russert says. "I have no interest."
That's because Russert understands that in the current media-influenced world, TV power is political power. "Why should I run?" he asks. "So I can be on Meet the Press? Think about it."

"Bush should've picked me to replace Cheney," a disappointed Eminem told a reporter for U.S. News and World Report. "I'm the real Slim Shady. Cheney is a total #@&%!!! And you can, quote me on that"

The Eminem endorsement gave the Bush campaign plenty to crow about, with one Bush spokesman claiming that a Gore White House would now need a "Parental Advisory" sticker plastered across it. But the Bush camp could not crow for long. as it soon discovered that it had a new unexpected ally: international pariah Slobodan Milosevic.

RREAKEAST WITH THE ARTS (Sun., A&E) [2] Fans of classical music-or just plain class-get a rare treat here: an all-star rendition of Beethoven's Triple Concerto. The breathtaking niece is seldom performed because it requires an orchestra to pull off the tricky feat of scheduling gifted piano, violin and violoncello soloists. The Berlin Philharmonic delivers with pianist Daniel Barenboim, cellist Yo-Yo Ma and violinist Itzhak Perlman. Close-ups illustrate the trio's passion. which climaxes in a stir-

(Sun., VH1) The title of Sinead O'Connor's new album. Faith and Courage, sums up this revealing profile of the controversial Irish singer. She recounts with disturbing candor how music rescued her from the pain of childhood abuse, and how her infamous ripping up of a photo of Pope John Paul II on Saturday Night Live was inspired by ill feelings about the Catholic Church-a sect. of which she later joined Still, it's her often-brilliant music that has truly been her salvation: "If I had not sung," O'Connor says, "I'd be Kurt Cobain right now."

AUSTIN CITY LIMITS (PBS)* John Hiatt is a little bit rock and roll. Kelly Willis is a little bit. country, and in this Austin City Limits episode, they deliver a lot of literate, heartfelt music. The raw-voiced Hiatt, long a critical favorite for his insightful songwriting, appears on Austin backed on bass and mandolin, but not percussion. His drummer was very surly, so we just started leaving him home," he says tongue in cheek. Even without drums. Hiatt's set is terrific. It features his composition "Thing Called Love," made famous by Bonnie Raitt. and songs from his new Crossing Muddy Waters CD, notably the mournful title cut, the driving "Lift Up Every Stone" and the up-tempo "Lincoln Town." Patriot Games? THE OLYMPICS, SPOILED BY BAD BEHAVIOR, SHOULDN'T BE FUNDED BY TAXPAYERS In addition to the fortunes spent by corporations to become proud U.S. Olympic team sponsors. U.S. taxpayers, in the last 15 years, have shelled out. an estimated $2 billion to finance the Olympics. And for what?

It's not that I'm a sore loser, Shoot, the U.S. won the most medals in Sydney, thanks, in large part, to the fall of the Soviet bloc and its politically motivated, win-atany-cost scientists, er. I mean coaches.

Given what the Olympics have become in the hands of multinational corruption magnets, I'd rather see that $2 billion spent on some good old American bureaucratic waste. Money allocated by this country to sustain the Games constitutes a case of bait and switch The beneficiaries, the Olympics, are owned and operated by the International Olympic Committee. recently proven to be loaded with sportsminded racketeers. At the same time, the Olympics' oft-stated and prescribed lofty ideals-the promotion of fair play and inter-exchange rate. The rampant use of performanceenhancing drugs has made winners the targets of instant and often wellfounded suspicion. The Olympics now seem to serve as an inspiration to discover better methods of drug masking.

The international harmony that the Olympics are supposed to foster exists mostly as a Pollyanna notion. The greater chance exists to create or underscore divisiveness among countries. In fact, the Americans, in so many events-track and field, basketball and swimming, to name a few-became the targets of worldwide derision. Not that we didn't earn it.

Preening, taunting, displaying a virulent disrespect for opponents became a daily issue in Sydney, as reported in our newspapers, Certainly, NBC, the Network That Ate the Olympics, wasn't going to spend much time on this story, not even

STATEHOOD QUARTERS: THE MOST IMPORTANT NEW COIN COLLECTION IN U.S. HISTORY

The United States has started to issue an unprecedented series of 50 coins celebrating the 50 states of the Union. These new coins represent the first change to the quarter-dollar design since the 1976 Bicentennial.

Authorized by Congress and signed into law by President Clinton, this is the most ambitious coin series ever issued by the United States. Every state in the Union will be honored on a different commemorative quarter showing George Washington on the obverse and a unique statehood design on the reverse.

The quarters will be issued in the sequence that the states became part of the Union. Coins for the first states are already in circulation; they are being produced by both the Denver and Philadelphia Mints. The mintage period for each coin is limited to approximately 10 weeks and every coin may not be released for circulation in every state. Therefore, collectors face an especially difficult challenge putting together a complete set of these quarters in uncirculated condition.

PRIVATE ISSUE COLLECTOR PANELS CAN NOW BE RESERVED.

In conjunction with this historic coin series, a special series of Collector Panels bearing these magnificent Statehood Quarters will be issued by PCS (a private agency not affiliated with the U.S. Mint). One Panel for each state will feature two uncirculated specimens of the Statehood Quarters: one each from the Philadelphia and Denver Mints. The coins will be protectively encased in the Panel to preserve their high quality. An expertly-written narrative will describe the unique coin design and history of each state.

Each Collector Panel will also include up to three mintcondition U.S. stamps honoring the featured state, or a person or event associated with that state. These historic stamps — issued up to 60 years ago and most no longer available from the U.S. Postal Service — will also be protectively encased. A scenic photo will capture each state's unique beauty or an historic landmark.

Common design on the obverse of each coin,

CONVENIENT ACQUISITION PLAN; DELUXE COLLECTOR'S ALBUM AT NO ADDITIONAL CHARGE.

The Postal Commemorative Society's Statchood Quarters Collection can be reserved now for just $14.95 per Panel (plus $2 shipping, handling, and insurance). Panels will be sent to subscribers timed with the issuance of the quarters (approximately one every other month). Subscriptions may be canceled at any time.

PROMPT ACTION RECOMMENDED.

This historic collection is available for a limited time only. The uncirculated quarters are in high demand, and are sure to be hoarded by collectors, much like the Bicentennial coinage of 1976 which disappeared from circulation shortly after being issued. When combined with

A Collector's Album is included at no additional charge.

Beau Bridges, Sissy Spacek

Sissy Spacek
Sissy Spacek and Beau Bridges bring to life this 2000 made-for-TV dramabased on Mary McGarry Morris's bestseller about a woman courted by an enigmatic drifter in 1960s Vermont.

Mari is Fermoyle (Spacek) lives in the shadow of her alcoholic ex-husband (Kief Dullea) while strungling to raise three kids. When charming affilter Omar Dwall (Bridges) knocks on her door for a drink of waler, she let sh him into her home, her life and into her hera IT she also gives him access to her savings, which could be her undolony- or worse. To fair ic, he's a misunderstood man trying to make a fresh start but of brees see something more sinister. (200)

They've defended clients, prosecuted attorneys, and fought City Hall. But they've never taken on a judge. until tonight.

One reason for the popularity of Survivor is that fans could look forward to a new episode each week, with no repeats. Get the hint, networks?

> Basil Burgess Taunton, Mass.

I'm sick of virtual nobodies milking the cash cow of Survivor: But if they hope to parlay their stints into careers, they should follow in the footsteps of The Brady Bunch: "The Survivor Brides," "Survivor: The Animated Series" and "A Very Survivor Christmas."

Tracey Q. Bush Williamstown, W.Va.

NBC FALLS SHORT OF GOLD

I don't want Olympic coverage that's incomplete, delayed for hours or interspersed with irrelevant "human interest" pieces (such as JFK's encounter with an aboriginal man). I want it all, from start to finish, and not just sports involving Americans. I give NBC a score of 1 out of 10, and no chance of a needal.

The Dolphins, coming off a bye week, are hoping the time off doesn't do for them what it did to the Jets two weeks ago. The well-rested (and undefeated) Jets had been on an early-season roll under new coach Al Grob, but not pasted by the struggling Steelers, 20-3, after Josing OB Vinny Testaverde to a pinched nerve on the first play from scrimmage. Regardless of who leads the Jets offense, they'll face a Dolphins defense that has allowed only 51 points and 3 TDs in six games. The chief havoc wreaker has been 35-year-old DE Trace Armstrong, who has collected 10 sacks.

School Daze

Debut: David E. Kelley (Ally McBeal, The Practice) moves his venue from the courtroom to the classroom.

His new series is a multiplotted ensemble drams that unfolds in a Boston high school, where servanal and professional conflicts entangle faculty and students. The central character is Stevent Barper (Chi NESHGE), as savy and formiddale principal whose patience in the opener's tested by a bullying teen, a gun-wielding teacher and a gridforn star's hostile falther (Countrie, R Vance), who blamset the school for his son's falling grades—and threaters a lawsuit. Jouren Jessawi Gibbs. Lichostutz Frywas Finel, 1000

ALLY MCBEAL (CC) MON 9 PM 22 29 ED ED

Robert Downey Jr. (pictured) joins the cast (for at least eight episodes) in this fourth-season opener debating the relative importance of sex in relationships. For Ally, the tonic surfaces after Brian asks her to move in with him. The question sends her running to therapist Tracey, who has departed, leaving behind Ally's file-and a warning for whoever takes her place. That's Larry Paul (Downey), who hears Ally confess that not all is well with Brian in bed. Larry encourages her to be honest-brutally. Meanwhile, Cage represents a friend (Audrey Wasilewski) seeking to annul her six-year marriage, which is based on companionship rather than intimacy, (1:00)

ROSWELL (CC) MON. 9 PM (20 (33 (WB)

The Way We Were Michael (Brendan Fehr) hears an eyewitness account of what happened during the 1947 allen crash in this intriguing installment.

To bolster his failing history grade, Michael grudgingly agrees to interview a former Air Force pilot who served at Roswell during the famed incident. As Capt. Hal Carver's recitation unfolds through flashbacks, Fehr portrays the tale's supporting players. Jason Behr (Max) is Richard Doty, Carver's friend and fellow serviceman: William Sadler (Sheriff Valenti) is the colonel in charge of the investigation; and Majandra Delfino (Maria) is a saucy reporter covering the story. (100)

HATE.COM: EXTREMISTS ON THE INTERNET (CC) EFF MON. 10 PM (HBO)

Marris Dees

Morris Dees, co-founder of the Southern Poverty Law Center, narrates this disturbing documentary, which traces the evolution of hate-filled Web sites.

tors these sites, discusses how hate groups have found a perfect home on the Internet. With the growing popularity of the Net, the number of Web sites that advocate violence and prejudice against minorities and other groups has increased at an alarming rate. Particularly targeted are blacks . Jews and homosexuals. The program allows the founders of such sites to speak for themselves-which they do in Jarrino detail. (:45)

David Hyde Pierce. Jane Leeves

Post-Nuptial Disagreement Niles and Daphne (David Hyde Pierce, Jane Leeves) face the fury of their litted mates in the hourlong eighth-season opener, which marks the show's move to Tuesday night.

Last season, viewers learned weddings and Winnebaggs don't mix as Daphne nixed her nuptials to speed off with her runaway Romeo, Niles, But before the lovebirds get their "happily ever after," their scorned lovers plan to get even. Gloomy groom Donny (Saul Rubinek) slaps Daph with a hefty lawsuit for emotional distress. And plastic surgeon Mel (Niles's wife of three days) sculpts a scheme of her own to make her wayward hubby as miserable as possible. (I:DD)

The Monitor

Lincoln's Secret Weapon The series opens its 27th season underwater, following Navy divers as they seek to recover parts from the ship "that changed the way war was waged at sea." That's what narrator Roy Scheider calls the Monitor, the U.S. Navy's first ironclad warship, which also boasted the world's first revolving gun turret. This hour explores why these breakthroughs enabled the Monitor to maintain the Union's blockade of the Chesageake by fighting the Confederate ironclad Merrimac to a standstill in March 1862 before sinking, less than nine months later, in rough seas off Cape Hatteras, N.C. The blockade, it has been arqued, ensured an eventual Union victory, (1:00)

Periods of Adjustment Series creators Marshall Herskovitz and Edward Zwick wrote this simply plotted vet richly textured second-season opener.

Typically, the episode unfolds in vignettes, which depict how the romance between Lily (Emmy winner Sela Ward) and Rick figures into the anxieties of each other's teenage daughters. Grace and Jessie (Evan Rachel Wood). The latter is having a particularly difficult time. As she tells Rick, "You and Mom get divorced. fine. And I have to have two different houses, and now I have to go to Lify's all the time. So I'm gonna have three houses where I have to live. Debut: Steven Weber plays a Chicago bachelor who thinks that he may be the victim of a curse.

When Jack Nagle (Weber) ends a blind date by telling the woman (Lisa Darr) they shouldn't see each other again, she responds with five Greek words meant to place a hex on him. Is he really cursed? Co-executive producer Adam Chase says, "We're looking at it metaphorically. You could say that everyone in life is cursed." But an unpleasant clash with a clown has Jack believing her snell could be real. The cast includes Chris Elliott as Jack's best friend. Amy Pietz

MYSTERY! (CC) THURS 9 PM (9)(13)

Hetty Wainthropp Returns The matronly Midlands sleuth (Patricia Routledge) returns for the fourth year in a row with six more cases to solve.

This low-key, no-violence series has always relied more on personality (particularly the likable Hetty's) than plot * and, in the opener, she's even able to tie up matters tidily while hospitalized. Upon entering the hospital (for varicose veins), she hears about robberies at the homes of patients. Then DCI Adams (John Graham Davies), who's at the hospital to investigate, is accused of attempted rape by a nurse (Gillian Kearney). Hetty knows that the charge is ludicrous. She also suspects it's tied to the robberies. (1:00)

TiVo helped cure my road rage.

I'm embarrased to say... I was a mess. Every Thursday for laive work early so I could watch my fixentle law show. If the salling along, humaning the theme song, which also during love, when all of a sadden, griddock tattle. And... If the lat., I and this is had to admil as a PTA member, wanted to throw my SUV into love and crush every living taling in front of me. Then my husband got me TIVo, which lets me watch the shows I want whenever I want to watch them, I especially charids Sasson Pass? which automatically retrieves my favorite show week in and week out for the entire sesson. I'm fine now. And you'll be too if you go to tivo.cem or your local electroids store.

Holt McCallany Fighting the Power

Debut: Following a wave of terrorism that climaxes with the downing of the President's plane, the Joint Chiefs of Staff suspend the Constitution and assume control of the U.S. in this action series from producer Joel Silver ("The Matrix").

However, this dramatic military takeover does not sit well with several former special-forces members, played by Holt McCallany, Scarlett Chorvat, Bodhi Elfman and Darius McCrary, each of whom is being held in a Federal periltentially for treason. In the opener, the forum meet and are eventually woosed into a resistance force, leading them to begin their light for extore democracy to the Nation. (100)
